Question #1 - Can a non-Canadian citizen donate to a campaign?

Who can make a contribution?

You can accept contributions only from individuals who are residents of Ontario. Corporations and trade unions are not permitted to make contributions to candidates.

If your spouse is not a resident of Ontario, they can still make contributions to your campaign. They may not make contributions to any other candidate. Groups such as clubs, associations or ratepayer's groups are not eligible to make contributions.

The members of these groups may make individual contributions from their personal funds (as long as they are residents of Ontario).

Who cannot make a contribution?

The following individuals and organizations are not permitted to make contributions to municipal council and school board campaigns:

- a corporation
- a trade union
- an individual who is not normally a resident in Ontario
- a federal political party, constituency association, or a registered candidate in a federal election
- a provincial political party, constituency association, or a registered candidate or leadership contestant
- a federal or provincial government, a municipality or a school board

Question #2 – Can you include your nomination filing fee as an election expense?

Campaign expenses are the costs that you incur (or that a person such as your campaign manager incurs under your direction) during your campaign. Reminder: the nomination fee is a personal expense rather than a campaign expense. It should not be reported on your campaign financial statement.

Question #3 – Is the nomination filing fee tax deductible?

You are entitled to have your nomination fee refunded if you file your campaign financial statement by the filing deadline. We suggest contacting your personal accountant regarding the eligibility of this fee being tax deductible.

Question #4 – What information is available regarding the recent discussions about traffic calming and speeding in the Township?

Council has received two reports regarding these topics. They can be found attached to this document.

Question #5 – Can a business make a donation to my campaign?

You can accept contributions only from individuals who are residents of Ontario. Corporations and trade unions are not permitted to make contributions to candidates. Any Third party advertisers who want to spend money on advertisements during the election must register with the municipal clerk and must file a financial statement.

Question #6 – Can I pay cash for campaign related expenses?

As long receipts are obtained for each expense and they are included within your campaign financial statement (form 4).

Question #7 – Can I hold a ‘Meet your Candidate’ event on my property?

It is up to you to provide voters with information about you as a candidate and about your campaign. Make sure you are in compliance with all Township by-laws and public health regulations if food and beverages are to be served.
